DEB FITZSIMMONS

Deb's passion for music began at the age of 3 when she first sat at her grandmother's piano (they've been the best of friends ever since). Not too long afterwards, she learned that she would rather sing, than do pretty much anything else in the world (still true to this day).

Deb graduated from York University in 1999 with a specialized Honours B.A. in Music, with a focus on history and ethnomusicology. She then attended Queen's University where she graduated in 2000 with a B.Ed.

With an appreciation for most styles of music — folk, jazz, southern gospel, Celtic, and practically anything released between 1962 and 1974, top her list of Favourites — this is one artist not to miss!
